Principals Report: See attached report

Teachers Report: Mrs. Lehner

Looking forward to conferences. Teachers appreciated the snacks in the lounge. A thank-you card was shared.

Treasury Report:

No updates were available at this meeting.

Auction Report:

The auction team had a recent meeting and planning continues to progress. 6 of the 10 caller spots were filled. For now, the recruitment of callers will continue in the newsletter. SAC members were encouraged to reach out to their friends and families for sponsors. Packets will be going home soon- looking for basket donations according to the theme as in years past. The committee voted in favor of keeping the raffle prizes the same as last year.

Fundraising:

- Magazines: Pick up of items on Monday, 10/25. Dana Pipkorn is taking over for next year
- Box Tops: Ongoing
- Calendar Raffle: 11/17-12/10 or perhaps one additional week
- Paper Drive: Search for more vendors (ongoing). November dates change to the week before Christmas and week after Christmas.
- Sign Up Tool- potential new chair being trained in.

Non Fundraiser:

- Parent Prom: Thanks to sponsors, this is now a totally free event! GLRs going to target Facebook Mom groups for advertising and targeting social opportunities. Also requested mentor families to reach out.

Hospitality Report:

- Reviewed parent day dates; added 6th grade on 11/24. Also noted the first grade date was changed from 11/10 to 11/17.

Parish Update and Packer Booth:

- Parish
  - Continue to work on One by One campaign progress
- Packer Booth
  - Tips are up. 33 spots remaining. Christmas Day continues to have no volunteers. Need new stand leads for next year.

Booster Club Report:

- New apparel for staff was delivered last week. (Each staff member was able to spend up to $40- this model was very inclusive of the staff needs and was very appreciated!)
- New hats were purchased for Packer booth

Finance Council & Board of Trustees:

New Business:

- Open Positions: secretary, fundraising coordinator to support fundraiser chairs
  - Next meeting we will vote on Jessica Daul for Secretary!
